

“ Love Letters”

Written by Natalie Marie Claro - BMI CAE/IPI #779126799

Topic: A song meant to sound nostalgic even to new ears, another “Romeo and Juliet” story.

[VERSE]

Lucy sent her lover a letter
She knew he was longing for her touch
With highways between them
It'd been a few weeks and
The autumn was lacking sun

Born and raised in Indiana
She'd never gone out much
A father that didn't trust her
A boy who taught her how to let go
Snuck her out into night shows
Locked hands when he kissed her

[CHORUS]

Lucy had to learn how
To get by on her own
Without someone to calm her soul
Who knows just how long
It'll be without her one
Can't be filled by a phone
But as the distance grew
So did the fondness of their hearts

[VERSE]

Daniel sent his lover a letter
With a polaroid of himself
Sent it to her neighbor
Lucy's father won't approve
She'll have to sneak it later

Born and raised in Indiana
He'd always run out of fun
Kill time smoking at the park
A girl who taught him how to take it slow

Savor how the days flow
How storms reveal rainbows

[CHORUS]

Daniel had to learn how
To get by on his own
Without someone to calm his soul
Who knows just how long
It'll be without his one
Can't be filled by a phone
But as the distance grew
So did the fondness of their hearts

[BRIDGE]

Lucy opened up her letter
After hiding it in her coat
It was signed with the name that she calls him
Knowing that he was the one

[CHORUS]

But they had to learn how
To get by on their own
Without someone to calm their soul
Who knows just how long
It'll be without the one
Can't be filled by a phone
But as the distance grew
So did the fondness of their hearts
